At the Receiving Hospital the man was found to be suffering from a fracture of the skull and died.
From what the police were able to learn from Mr. Moon and other persons who were in the truck at the time of the accident, he had ridden into the side of his motorcycle and the truck went over him. The two crashed in the center of the road and the motorcycle was thrown a distance of about thirty feet, striking the man with his head.
Upon inquiry it was learned that Mr. Moon did not belong to them; he had the right to drive the truck which he was driving according to them, he had not even the right to drive the truck.
He will be held for trial on an investigation of the ownership of the machine and the consequences.

Urge Sending Naval Flotilla Against Submarines.

An All-year Tourist Resort Peacock's Claim.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
PASADENA, March 5.—The first of parades burned brightly in Pasadena yesterday when there were strong practical demonstrations of loyalty to country by both old and young. Representing the loyalty of men of mature years, former United States Senator George F. Edmunds and four other prominent Pasadenaans sent a telegram to New York urging that a United States naval expedition be sent out to clear the seas of commerce-destroying submarines. The patriotic spirit of youth was represented in the action of Paul Scherer, son of President James A. B. Scherer, of Throop College, who has withdrawn as student in the college to offer his services to the country.

The telegram signed by Mr. Edmunds and Arthur H. Fleming, Arthur A. Noyes, James H. McBride and President Scherer, was read last evening at a patriotic mass meeting held in New York City. The appeal was made by young Scherers and was seconded by Carlyle Ridderup yesterday morning at the chapel exercises of the college.

WANTS TO FIGHT.

So eager to serve against Germany is Mr. Scherer that he will go to Canada and enlist there in his own defense. It is not known to what service he will be sent. The investigation through several channels, among them the national research council, to learn whether his services as a soldier or sailor can be used to advantage by the government at this time.

After the action of his son had been made public, Dr. Scherer announced at the chapel exercises that in accordance with the action of the government he would resign his leave of absence to offer himself for "national service" should have some retained on the college rolls and on his return have at his disposal special facilities for making up the work he had missed during his absence. He had failed to dedicate himself to the service in behalf of which the "certificate of honor" was issued.

TELEGRAM SENT.

Following the tenor of the telegram to New York, "we have war with Germany inevitably follows from cumulative acts of cruelty and inhumanity beginning with the Lusitania massacre, and culminating in the Leconia outrage, and our president is induced friendly states to enter and disserve her country. We therefore join your movement to make our people realize that the nation now faces the alternative of war or dishonor. Let us earnestly urge the President to use our naval forces to scour the seas and capture or destroy German submarines whenever found."

Mr. Edmunds represented Vermont for twelve years in the Senate of Congress and was reelected as one of the leading authorities on international law. During his term as Senator he was the author of the Edmunds act which wiped out polygamy in Utah, and other comprehensive legislation of note.

ALL-YEAR TOURIST RESORT.

All indications point to Ontario as an all-year-round tourist resort. In response to increasing demands, D. M. Lillard, manager of the Maryland, Huntington and Green, announced that the Huntington and Green would be open much later than usual this year.

This will be the longest tourist season in the history of Pasadena. Mr. Lillard declared yesterday, "We have no intention of restraining the interest of tourists in the city until June. I believe that it is only a matter of a few years until all of the large hotels here will remain open all year round."

BIG TIME.

Now Being Made by Imperial Valley for the Entertainment and Feeding of the Delegation that Starts from Washington Tomorrow.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
EL CENTRO, March 5.—Imperial Valley will entertain visiting Congressmen in the Ketner party which is due to arrive in Southern California early next week. The Washington men of affairs will be taken on a "seeing Imperial Valley" tour as part of their Southern California trip. They will be banqueted, shown what the valley is doing in the way of raising necessities for the millions, and inspect the vast irrigation improvements.

Attorney Phil Swig today received a message from Congressman Ketner stating that the party would leave Washington on Wednesday.

Already plans have been laid to entertain the visitors in lavish western style. They shall taste of Imperial beef, butter, early peas, asparagus, grapefruit, dates and oranges. All these will be given them to see the best of 28,000,000 cotton crop being baled, and to view 12,000 acres of cantaloupe.

Three years ago Congressman Ketner brought a Congressional delegation to the valley. The delegation had the support of each member of the party in any plan for assistance to this great agricultural empire.

Officials of the various Chambers of Commerce throughout the valley are members of the Congressional delegation. It is probable that the eastern feast will be served at one of the large ranches.

(DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SANTA BARBARA, March 5.—George O. Knapp of Montecito and Chicago today bought the County Hospital property for $25,000. Knapp is declared to be the only multimillionaire actually owning a poor farm. The holding consists of a large acreage on the boulevard to Montecito, within the city limits, improved with a large hospital building, a number of small posthouses and poor quarters.

All the buildings are occupied by indigents. Knapp expects in time to have the poor farm and hospital moved from the property, giving away to a pretentious dwelling for an eastern millionaire.

HERD OF ELEPHANTS BLOCK AUTO ROAD.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
RIVERSIDE, March 5.—Mt. Rubidoux, accustomed to the tread of thousands of pilgrims on the occasion of the annual Easter celebration, yesterday trembled under the tread of elephants, which descended the hill, a high-powered car whose drivers fain would make the summit on the high.

The keepers of the pachyderms, which belong to the circus, had decided that the journey up the mountain would be a good thing for the animals, which have been confined to the County Fair grounds, where the soil is sandy. The show starts out on the road this week.

Long Beach TEST RUN FOR NEW SUBMARINE

U. S. Boat L-6 will Take a Spin in the Sea.

Expected to Develop Fourteen Knots of Coast.

Naval Officers will Attend the Trial Trip.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
LONG BEACH, March 5.—Although officials of the California Shipbuilding Company are endeavoring to keep secret the progress and movements of the closely guarded government war vessels just reaching completion inside their yards on the harbor, the news leaked out this afternoon that tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, when the tide will reach its point during the day, the first trial trip of the submarine L-6 will be made.

The L-6 is the first United States vessel to be built south of San Francisco on the Pacific Coast.

Slipping her moorings from Channel No. 1, the harbor at the plant shipbuilding company, the L-6 will make her way out of the harbor into the bay on her first unofficial test run, which officials will wait for of the plant and government naval officers will be present for the occasion. It is understood that no submerged trials will be conducted, as the water is not deep enough for a surface trial.

Tomorrow's tide will be five feet, eight inches, the highest to occur until two weeks later. For this reason the trial trip is to be made as soon as possible.

The submerged traveling radius of the L-6 will be 1,000 miles. It is expected to develop fourteen knots on the surface and twenty-two knots submerged. A motor and auxiliary batteries furnishes the power under power, while the surface two 1000-horse-power Diesel engines drive the vessel.

CLAIM PROPERTY GOTTEN BY FRAUD.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
SANTA BARBARA, March 5.—An echo of a rashly find last January near Placeville was heard in the Superior Court today, when Knut Holstrom brought suit against Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bern, administrators of the estate of Carl Holstrom, to quiet title to the Riviera Hotel on the allegation that the property was obtained from the late Carl Holstrom.

Holstrom's skeleton was found dangling from the limb of a tree near Placeville. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. The Vice-President of the Chinese Republic, Fung Kuo Chang, is deposed pro-British in his views, and is highly regarded by all classes. The ramification of the Berns' suit is that Carl Holstrom, the hotel owner, had been of the party for many years.

GERETY'S UNSEATED AS VENICE CLEANS HOUSE.
Designations of Heads of All Twelve City Departments Demanded.

OFFICIAL DEATH
MAYOR E. A. GERETY, for four years Mayor of Venice, was yesterday afternoon unseated as chairman of the Board of the beach city, and as acting Mayor. Trustee J. J. Lewis, who for a like period, was in the chairmanship by a vote of three Trustees, Trustees A. M. McDonald, Myron J. Carr and Lewis; Mr. Gerety and Trustee Smart not voting.

It is also understood that the duties of the Park Commissioner and the Street Superintendent will be assumed by the City Engineer, under the new regime.

Immediately following being deposed as Mayor of Venice, Mr. Gerety introduced a resolution instructing the Chief of Police to notify all car owners that the board will not countenance the giving of drinks to minors under the age of 21. He pointed out that the State law permits a girl 18 years old to be served liquor in cafes, but he wished the age limit made 21 years, or express a wish to make it 25 years.

The motion was passed, with the understanding that, if cafe owners violate its provisions, their licenses may be revoked.

Trustee Carr, who introduced a resolution to effect that all cars in the morning, but no action was taken on this at the time of Mr. Gerety, who asked time to consider the question.

"There was all a surprise to me," said Mayor Gerety, after the meeting was over. "I knew that some such a movement was on foot, but I did not expect it today. I can assure you now that I could formerly, and I have no intention of resigning, just because I was unseated as Mayor."

"We intend to reorganize the city affairs," said Mayor Lewis. "Something has been done and we are going about it in this way to accomplish what we believe should be done."

At a meeting of the creditors of the city of Venice, seventy out of which held a power of appointment, was stopped yesterday morning asking Assemblyman Charles W. Lyon to introduce an amendment to a bill before the State Legislature permitting cities to increase the sixth class to increase their tax rate from 1% to 2%.

Santa Ana's Terror of All Speed
Law Breakers Fall a Victim to

Justice of the Peace Cox of Santa Ana, terror of all laymen who violate the speed laws, pronounced last night that he had a solo spot in his heart for one of his profession. He doesn't mind sending a millionaire to the rock pile, but he couldn't bring himself to be hard on a Judge of the Superior Court of San Francisco, who was arrested by the Santa Ana police.

Judge Shortall, who has been holding court here, went to San Diego to spend the last weekend.

He was called to the bar to be arraigned, but he made so eloquent a plea before Justice Cox that he was released without a fine.

IN ROBBER'S ROLE.

Right-of-Way Engineer for County
Is Mistaken for Hold-up Man
When Car Stalls at Night;
Gets Merry Go-by and Police Attention.

Ralph Begun, right-of-way engineer for the county road department, unconsciously posed as a hold-up man, scared sixty automobile drivers, and failing to accept his excuse that his machine had broken down, he was shot at from the county garage, a policeman stood guard over him in Westminister avenue at the solemn hour of midnight.

As he told it at the Hall of Records yesterday, he said:

"I took a man to Antelope Valley Saturday. On the way back at night the machine stalled up and I sat there at the gas bar. It gave out. I was stalled. I went into the middle of the street and held up my hand, seeking assistance. The driver stopped. There were by me six cars. They were by me. I counted sixty who wouldn't stop. Finally a spoozy couple came along in a small runabout. I stopped them, first apologetically, and then both hands up, and saying I was unarmed. They promised to inform the county garage of my plight.

I walked back to the machine and waited and then two policemen came up. They said a report had come in of a hold-up man in Westminister avenue. I tried to reassure them I was not a hold-up man. I had been and never wanted to be one, but while one officer walked away, the other stayed.

"Was I glad when the county garage man drove up? You bet I was. The officer thought I had stolen the stalled machine."

BIRTH CONTROL STIRS STORMS.

Superheated Session at the Woman's City Club.

Pastor Who's "Ag'in" it is Unpopular Minority.

Agitated Ladies All but Hoot Derision at Him.

BY ALICE WHITAKER.

One could not envy Rev. Charles C. Selecman his task at the Woman's City Club yesterday. He had the temerity to defend large families and the established traditions of motherhood at a crowded meeting of women who had just applauded birth-control advocates to the echo.

Dr. Selecman found his defense of the old-fashioned ideas unpopular. So much so that when he surmised that many women would only nod their heads in agreement, he gave a wild cry of "Not No! 'Shame!' Don't insult women!" to such an extent that the president, Mrs. Lewis R. Johnson, had to intervene on his behalf and beat him a solid hammering before she almost wore out a gavel in doing.

But no one had a calm hearing. And when the reverend man spoke of "more breeding machines," "the right of a woman to choose when and how she should bear children," and "the right of a woman to have a husband," he was applauded by young maidens and white-haired grandmothers alike.

When Rev. C. C. Selecman tried to uphold old-fashioned family ideas.

How it Looked at the Woman's City Club Yesterday.

At Least! CITY FISH HERE.

Municipal Markets and Store will Today Begin Sale of the Finny Fellows Fresh from Ocean and at joyful Prices Mayor Announces.

Mayor Woodman announced yesterday that all arrangements had been made for the sale of fish at the five municipal markets today and also at the municipal fish store in the Temple Block. The Mayor said fish will be sold at almost half the price being charged by retailers throughout the city.

"Everything is ready for this venture," the Mayor said. "With meat as high in price as I am satisfied people take advantage of the opportunity to buy fresh fish at these markets. The price will be within the reach of all, and we will have fresh fish every day but Sunday."

Life's General SOCIETY.

General Bell. Patriotic was the slogan of the gathering yesterday, that opened last night with about 100 couples dancing at the inaugural ball given at the Alexande's under the auspices of the American Legion. The spirit was all-American, the same spirit was evident in the silent gathering. Elaborate gowns were thrown in relief against walls and palm-filled corners; the ladies were shaded with red, white and blue and a portrait of President Wilson was conspicuous against the water. The dresses were cut by the costumiers of representatives of the Red Cross, who appeared in Colonial attire. At 9 o'clock the grand march was led by the Los Angeles Varsity band. Mr. Woodman. After the march came a confetti battle officiating. During this intermission Jeanne Justice sang "Mission Play." Babe Kline, a tiny motion-picture actress; Spike and Leo Ferrando and Maurice Riley. The entertainment for the ball was furnished by Miss Lucretia Del Norte, Mrs. B. A. Davis, Charles Stevens, Mrs. R. V. Bowden, Mrs. G. Taylor, Miss Musa Rawlings and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Walde will give a dinner party at the Sierra Club on March 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wido-Dyralbe held their wedding evening. The wedding, which will be solemnized tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock, will be elaborate and will be followed by a dinner for 150 invited guests.

Western Friends.

As a compliment to eastern friends Mr. Andrew M. Hargis of the Rex will entertain Saturday with a dance. The dance will be held in the ballroom and opening scenes were used for decorations. The guests were all of Grand Island, Neb., the former home of the famous baseball player, Ty Cobb.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home) Failure of the Senate to enact—because of La Follette's filibuster—the President's armed neutrality bill proved but a temporary setback to trading on the New York Stock Exchange; instead, the market continued its upward movement of Saturday. Trading was large and active, the largest, in fact, of any session in several weeks, with United States Steel the favorite, as so frequently is the case. Railroads manifested their customary recent lethargy, but in the final hour an irregular rally sent them to a higher level. International bonds were comparatively quiet.

(Abroad) The Swedish government was defeated Saturday in a joint ballot of the two chambers on its request for the appropriation of $5,000,000 crowns to be used in preserving Sweden's neutrality. There was a joint majority of fifteen against the government.

FAITH TO THEIR COUNTRY.

Alongside the name of Benedict Arnold should be gibbeted on the gallery of history the names of Robert M. La Follette and the six Progressives and five Democrats in the United States Senate who betrayed their country by preventing the passage not only of the armed neutrality law, but of laws providing for national preparedness on land and sea. The English language contains no words that can adequately characterize their infamy.

THE SIZE OF HIM.

The Times hopes that Stanley Benedict will take counsel of his conceit and become a candidate for public office in Los Angeles and thus give the voters an opportunity to express their opinion of his action in voting with twelve other malcontents against the interests and honor of his country.

Those who support him will simulate the example of the man who threw his little dog through a window. It smashed the window and killed the dog but the man was content. "There has always been a dispute," said he, "about the size of that dog. Now, from the size of the hole in the window I know exactly how big the dog was."

HIGH PRICES OF CANNED GOODS.

Canned goods are a part of the glorious "climb it" of California. Tomatoes, which a year ago retailed at 95 cents a dozen, now sell for $1.25. Corn, which was $1 a dozen, now sells for $1.50. Soups which sold at 10 cents a can now sell for 25 cents. Mushrooms which sold for 30 cents a can now sell for 50 cents. Mushrooms—also champignons—are imported from France and the German guns have shot the mushroom industry to pieces. Canned sauerkraut is practically out of the market. None is imported from Germany and fresh cabbages sell for double the price they would bring if made into sauerkraut.

The advance in canned goods of all kinds may be traced directly to the war. Besser weal is the basis of its plate. It is needed for munitions with which to kill people and cannot be wasted to hold materials with which to feed them.

The advance in the cost of tin alone in a small can over last year is about 1 cent. This does not take into account the higher prices of spelter, the basis of solder, increased cost of colors and tins used for the labels on the cans, higher prices for machinery and labor, all big items to a can manufacturer and the packer who preserves the foodstuffs.

Fortunately apples, peaches, pears and even berries can still be dried, and codfish, herring, mackerel, haddock, halibut and salmon can be salted and dried and we will not lack for table luxuries should the practice of preservation by canning be discontinued.

A PRIZE-FIGHTING PREACHER.

Bob Fitzsimmons is getting ready to counter on the nob of the devil and send him to grass in the sanctuary. He will become a full-fledged evangelist and battle Satan as erstwhile he did the great ringsters. He will work his famous shift on him and send his left hand into his stomach.

Bob is under contract to serve the devil in the Sunflower State until the first of June, and not even his new-found religion will induce him to break his agreement with the manager of the Kansas prize-fighting circuit, for Bob has a conscience. But when the June roses blossom the voice of Bob will be heard preaching the truths of revealed religion to the wicked San Franciscans.

Fitzsimmons promises to pull a lot of new stuff on sinners. He promises to follow the Bible as closely as possible, but where David and Solomon and Habakkuk and Isaiah and Paul and other "old stiffs"—as Bob calls them—fall short, there Bob will be found presenting his jawbone as a living sacrifice to the Lord.

When Jeffries punched Bob with a solar plexus blow in 1902 he roused Bob's conscience, and ever since Bob has considered the step he has now determined to take.

The success of Billy Sunday as an evangelist has recalled to Bob's conscience the advice that his mother gave him when he was 14 years of age—to be a minister. That advice has been in cold storage ever since, but on June first it will be released and then Old Scratch look out for himself.

The Times wishes that Bob could combine his old with his new profession, and visit Sacramento and revive the dormant consciences of the members of the pious band with a few well-directed swats, and possibly persuade Johnson and Chatterton Chet to forsake their sinful ways—but that is asking too much, altogether too much.

DISLOYAL FILIBUSTERING.

Whatever may be thought of the patriotism, the honesty or the wisdom of Senators Chapman of Minnesota and Works of California, whose terms as Senators expired on Sunday noon, no one can doubt their imperturbable self sufficiency in devoting the last hours of their terms as Senators to aiding a filibuster to defeat the neutrality bill, which had passed the House by a vote of 403 to 12, and which was favored by seventy-five Senators out of ninety-six.

So far as substantially aiding Germany is concerned—which appears to have been the object of these Progressive-Republican reactionaries—their action may be rendered nugatory by President Wilson's calling an extra session of Congress to deal with the situation.

The conditions created by the filibuster are not limited to a defeat of the proposed armed neutrality law. They extend to a defeat of the bill carrying appropriations for the maintenance and enlargement of the army, to a defeat of the Military Academy bill, which would increase the number of cadets under instruction, to a defeat of the general deficiency bill, carrying appropriations for the army and navy, and to a defeat of the bill to authorize the government in time of threatened war to take over shipping required for the protection of the nation.

Not the least mischievous result of the filibuster will be the encouragement it will give to the German, Austrian, Turkish governments to believe that the people of the United States are divided in opinion on the question of resistance or submission to German aggression, and that rather than resist Germany by force of arms the United States will suffer her to continue to sink our ships and murder our citizens.

As an incident of the filibustering campaign Senator Stone permitted himself to disclose the fact that the navy had planned equipping American merchant ships with light and swift submarine chasers, to guard them against submarines in the prohibited zones.

Was not this disclosure a violation of the principle of the law which the Senate at the request of the War Department recently enacted, making it a crime to publish the government's secrets?

THE U-BOAT CAMPAIGN A FAIRVIEW.

The British Embassy at Washington has issued a statement that the German blockade of the British coast has proved ineffective. It appears that since the "campaign of frightenedness" was begun, February 1, up to February 14 the number of arrivals and departures from the ports of the United Kingdom was: arrivals—British, 4052; Allied, 227; neutral, 497; total, 4777. Sailings—British, 2925; Allied, 226; neutral, 261; total, 4514. Daily average between February 1 and February 14: Arrivals—British, 290; Allied, 16; neutral, 35; total, 341. Sailings—British, 280; Allied, 16; neutral, 28; total, 322.

This does not include fishing vessels, coastwise ships nor craft of under 100 tons. The "campaign of ruthless murder" which was to "sink an average of 1,000,000 tons a month" and to "bring England to her knees in thirty days" has resulted in a loss of less than one ship for every 100 which arrived at or left British ports between February 1 and February 14.

The Times concurs with the statement that the operations of the submarines, as shown by both the official figures and by Lloyd's and press dispatches, indicate that the campaign has failed far short of the purpose originally set and is proving all but a failure.

RAYMOND ROBBINS OWNS UP.

Raymond Robbins, director of the Progressive Republican League (incorporated), and one time president of a Progressive National Convention in Chicago, is making a tour of California in the interests of the new political corporation of which he and Chester Rowell are stockholders and directors.

In San Francisco last week he signed the death certificate of the Progressive party and pronounced the funeral oration over the cadaver. The Progressive party is dead. All that remains for us to do is to bury its remains and waste no tears over the job.

Like Antony, he came to bury this Caesar the Little, not to praise him. And like the Antony of Shakespeare—the real Antony was made of different clay—he sought to rouse the indignation of the populace against the Republican leaders who were responsible for the Progressive party's death.

Mr. Robbins won a certain consideration, however, for his frankness of speech. There was a lack of hypocrisy about his expression that came as a surprise to those who are accustomed to the smug, pharisaical cast of the leaders of the California Armageddonists.

"I lost no sleep over the defeat of Hughes," he said. "I only wish you Californians had made a better job of it."

This is the true attitude of a majority of those who took part in the Chicago-Progressive Convention of 1916. An attempt at concealment of real motives was made by certain of the leaders in California; they had their ax to grind in getting the Republican vote of the State for Johnson for Senator. But that was for professional and political purposes only. Mr. Robbins took part in the Hughes campaign; but he now admits that during the whole time his fingers were crossed. He now rejoices openly in the election of Wilson and regrets only that more California Progressives did not betray Mr. Hughes in the eleventh hour, wishes that they "had made a better job of it."

Those who followed the campaign in California know that the attitude of Robbins is that of both Johnson and Rowell. They were giving a certain lip service to Mr. Hughes because it was a part of an agreement made among certain Progressives immediately after the Chicago Convention.

They went forth as mercenaries and figured they had more to win in the Republican ranks than with the Democracy. That Mr. Hughes was betrayed by the Progressives of California, with Johnson and Rowell at their head, even Mr. Robbins now admits; his only word of complaint is that they had not "made a better job of it."

There is a cinder in this, however, which should be commended. With Mr. Robbins there is no sniveling about any pretended betrayal of Mr. Hughes by the reactionary element in the Republican party in California, thereby compassing his defeat. He lays the defeat at the door of the Progressives, congratulates them on what they had done and regrets more of them did not take part in the movement. But Robbins is not likely to repeat that statement while in California;

RUNNING FOR OFFICE.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

"They tell me you are running for office again," remarked I, by whom I met as he was coming from a vegetarian cafe with a toothpick cocked at an angle of 45 degrees. "What are you doing in here—trying to round up the hay and oats vote?"

"Shh!" exclaimed the old man.

"I'm on a platform of table economy."

"No more table steaks, eh?" snorted I. "Well, that is a bum place to go to put a crimp in the high cost of living. With onions at 35 cents a pound and saratoga chips worth more than blue ones at the Jonathan Club, you just get cheaper board at the lumber yard."

"While you are out campaigning why not come down to the feed barn with me and have lunch? Then I'll let you take me to the Alexangelus for dinner and we'll get the swell guy vote."

"What makes you think I'm running for office?" said the old man.

"Everybody's doing it," retorted I. "What is it, Mayor or Council?"

"Well," began the pioneer, sheepishly. "I thought I'd practice up in the Council and then—"

"Woodman! spare that tree," interrupted I. "I know how that is. You'd begin in the City Council and you'd wind up before the grand jury under suspicion of being interested in the contract for supplying the city with water. Track Squad is Unusually Promising.

Sloane Runs Second to a Newcomer.

Jed House Tries His Luck at High Hurdles.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY. March 4.—Stanford's annual Irish Marathon race yesterday brought out the fact that Coach Templeton has in his track squad this season the most promising collection of material from which to build up teams of runners this year and during the immediate years to come, than has been the case with any coach for several seasons.

Although the senior class was returned the winner in the Marathon—which is run between four teams of twenty-four men each, with each man running a quarter-mile—some of the fastest times were recorded by underclassmen. A fair percentage of the runners who came through in the best style were Southern California boys.

Two men covered the quarter-mile in less than forty-three seconds, while last year's champion, Frank Sloane, who time was 50.12, for the distance.

Both Davenport, a former San Diego runner, and Capt. Applegate, ran their laps in 51.12.

The ten best performers yesterday were: Rogers (sophomore), 50.12; Sloane (freshman), 50.12; Davenport and Applegate (senior team), 51.12; Johnson and Beacham (junior team), 52.22; House and Flote (sophomore team), 52.22; House and Flote (sophomore team), 52.22; West (junior), 52.22.

"Jed" House seems to be in better form than ever. Whether he has improved or not, Capt. Templeton or even the jockeys who sent him across the Stanford oval is a mixed question, but it is plain that the Marauders' crack is going to do big things in the big meet next month.

Templeton persuaded the hurdler to try the high sticks today. House hasn't been over the big barriers for two years, but he negotiated the 120 yards in 14.7.

Both Ned Caughey and Hero Blum are keeping the weight in good style. Blum has been spending most of his time on the diamond. There is a chance that he will give up baseball in favor of track.

BOWLING NOTES.

ROSS IS A TEAM ALL BY HIMSELF.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY. March 4.—Norman Ross, the Olympic Club swimmer, just two days off the steamer from Honolulu, swimming as a team here yesterday afternoon, defeated the Cardinal varsity in four out of six events staged in the 100-foot Stanford tank. Ross won everything but the relay and the plunge-for-distance, thereby in reality winning every regular race. The husky "water fox" was decidedly at his best yesterday. The Card varsity team had three of the fastest swimmers in college swimming in turn, yet Ross outdistanced his opponents in the fifty-yard, 100-yard, 220-yard and backstroke events.

Goldsmith defeated Ross in the distance plunge, reaching 52 feet. In the 100-yard relay, in which the Cards were represented by three fast men, Peacock, Irrell and Goldsmith, the last-named swimmer managed to outsail Ross at the tape by about two-fifths of a second. Ross entered this race after having won four events in fast time, and in rapid succession. The former Card star took at the most but two minutes rest between races.

WRESTLING EPIDEMIC BECOMING SERIOUS HERE.

BY HOWARD ANGUS.

W^HILE RESTLING increases in fury, the city was simply crowded with training wrestlers yesterday. They have become an epidemic.

Joe Stecher, the champion, finally got into action at Jack Doyle's, and worked out for the better part of an hour with brother Anton. The assembled multitude gathered closely around the mat for a view of the fast-busting, rib-cracking, side-caving legs. The champion clamped them on brother Anton and squashed him properly for the benefit of the spectators.

The C. L. C. was simply alive with the training demons. Bill Demetral moved up from Van Nuys yesterday, after just moving down Saturday. One moment Demetral was smiling in the beginning of the seventh round, the next he was on the mat when Hendris doubled. Mann fanned and Wolter popped to Mattice.

The last round decided who was the best. Bill Demetral was the victor. He played a low-down trick on the unsuspecting "Tiger" by wallowing into the left-field bunches. "Tiger" was white with rage, but the ungracious finally decided that a home run was the name deserved.

SAYS HE IS READY TO SQUARE ACCOUNT

EPISODE OF TORN MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE RECALLED.

Differences over alimony are ironed out when husband tells judge he has closed new salary contract and is anxious to make up arrangements.

An episode of a marriage certificate that the wife is alleged to have torn up and thrown in her husband's face, was recalled yesterday when Joseph S. King appeared in alimony court to face a contempt charge growing out of an arrearage in his alimony payments. The wife, who is known to the film world as Hazel Buchanan, was recently awarded $12.50 a week alimony, though a divorce decree was denied.

In reply to the charge, Mr. King told Judge Wood that he is now working under a new contract and is willing to pay for the support of his daughter, Hazel King, 2 years old. Judge Wood ordered him to pay $25 a week for four weeks, half of which will apply on the arrearages. On this condition the contempt proceedings were continued for four weeks.

LAWES ONE SUIT.

VETERAN DEFENDANT.

Charles M. Jenkins, Civil War veteran, who was recently named as a defendant in two suits for mail robbery, filed a motion yesterday to pay his wife, Mrs. Phoebe S. Jenkins, $40 a month for her support. His adopted daughter, Lillian E. Jenkins, an invalid, is also seeking support. Mrs. Jenkins claims she has no property worth $15,000. He says it would sell it for $5,000.

The court advised Mr. Jenkins to sell his property and receive some funds before filing his suit. Mr. Jenkins claimed he was being driven into the Soldiers' Home, and said he would not go there.

IN AND OUT.

Stites, and after giving diamond rings and other jewelry to friends and relatives, she bequeathed $5000 to C. E. Tolson, the man who made application for his kinship. The deceased resided at No. 2647 Hawthorne Avenue, where she died last Thursday.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Harry D. Norman, a marine engineer, who was brought from San Francisco on a bench warrant, was committed to the County Jail by Judge Wood yesterday to serve five days in jail to support his family. His wife, Mrs. Norman, the court turned over to Mrs. Norman the cash found on Mr. Norman to the amount of $50, leaving $3 for the latter's use.

SEPARATE MAINTENANCE SUITE.—Charging him with drinking, gambling and carousing, while they were living together, Mrs. Jennie L. Loring fled out from separate maintenance suite in the Hotel George yesterday, taking $75 a month for her support. The couple were married in 1881 and have three sons, the oldest 25 years old. They separated in 1904. Mr. Loring, a carpenter, is allowed by his wife to have an income of more than $200 a month and property worth several thousand dollars.

Writ of Review.

MCCOWAN IS WINNER.—Kern County District Attorney is upheld by Appellate Court, following Admonition that There were Errors in Petition for His Recall.

Barclay McCowan, District Attorney of Kern County, was the winner yesterday before the District Court of Appeal in a petition filed by him asking for a writ of review, involving the recall action of F. E. Smith, Clerk of Kern county, and the Board of Supervisors.

It was claimed by Mr. McCowan that the petitions were illegal, in that they did not give the address of the signers. The writ, which was much signature was appended, and yesterday the defendants filed a stipulation in court that no dates had been affixed opposite the signatures on the petition for recall filed in Kern County February 15. It was agreed that the alternative writ of certiorari be made permanent at once, and that the procedure to which the court directed, be followed and annulled.

The order of the court applies to the pending action against Mr. McCowan, and if it is decided to start the recall against him it will be suspended for his opponents in Kern County to start all over again.

COURT CHARGE.—Ralph E. Walker and D. M. Witton, alias Brown, charged with selling tickets in violation of law, gave bond, yesterday, in the sum of $1000 each, for their appearance to answer the charge before Unified State Tax Commission. It is alleged by the government that the men have been engaged in wholesaling scalper's tickets.

But One Protest to Scheme for West Fifth-street Improvement by Boring Hill Between Beaudry Avenue and Olive Street. Special Speak for the Project.

West Fifth street, between Olive street and Beaudry avenue, may be opened as a result of unanimous action taken yesterday by the City Council. This means that the way is cleared for the construction of a tunnel through the old Normal Hill, which will open another artery to the business center of a well-populated residential district.

The only objection voted in the Council chamber against the final passage of the ordinance was A. B. Cohn, well-known financial man, who objected to the scheme of assessment of amounts which were strongly in favor of the measure were R. A. Rowan, Oscar E. Parish and Joy Clark, all prominent real estate operators.

Annexation Urged.—Urging the annexation of territory contiguous to the western boundary of the city, principally on the grounds that the adjacent lands would offer an opportunity for making some improvements to the Council yesterday asking for a special election. The petitions were referred to the City Clerk, who will check them.

The proposed annexation involves that part of the West Adams Heights district adjacent to The City Clerk and a large area adjoining the south strip and extending to the boundaries of Venice.

LIE IS PASSED AS SUPERVISORS VOTE.

WOODLEY AND NORTON IN POINTED REPARTER.

Proposition to Turn Over Mint Canyon Road to State to Complete, Due to County's Depleted Finances, Arouses Long-standing Feud.

Compelled to abandon the contract for the construction of the Mint Canyon road because of the financial stringency, the Board of Supervisors yesterday, by a vote of three to one, turned the road over to the State Highway Commission to complete. The dissenting vote was that of Chapman, Hamilton and Supervisor Norton.

The introduction of this resolution, which was approved by the Chamber of Commerce, again brought to the surface the existing feud between Supervisors Norton and Woodley. The opposition, which was more acrimonious than ever, finally came to the point where Mr. Woodley challenged Mr. Norton "to get busy," "go to the grand jury," or something similar. The adherents of the shadow of Mr. Norton, that Mr. Woodley had stood in the path of the proper investigation of the accounts of the county, Mr. Woodley's retort was that that was a lie.

Mr. Norton stated in opposition to the proposal to turn the road over to the State Highway Commission at this time because no time was given him to look into the matter. There was no assurance, he stated, that the State Highway Commission would construct this road, and if such an extension was given, he wanted it in writing.

Mr. McClellan, who presented the resolution, stated he had taken the matter up with Mr. Norton, who had agreed to vote for the resolution; and further, that he had not talked with a single member of the Chamber of Commerce, and that the suggestion to turn Mint Canyon over to the State, and hereby save the expense of maintaining it, was good. Commissioner Darlington, he stated further, was willing to take the resolution to Sacramento and lay the matter before the Legislature today.

The opposition seemed to be based on the fact that the county would not waive the automobile taxes, but Mr. McClellan asserted he could not see how the taxes figured in the plan to give Antelope Valley an outlet. Mr. Dodge said he would vote for the resolution if it was amended so far as to state that the county would not waive its rights to the automobile taxes or the use of the State bond issue for the improvement of the Arroyo Seco.

JUST TWO ORANGES.

Fruit Said to Have Been Gathered by Caterer Motorist Past an Orchard Leads to Charges of Petty Larceny and Disturbing Peace.

Two oranges, picked by an auto-motorist in the San Fernando Valley Sunday were the basis of a complaint, charging petit larceny, issued yesterday by Deputy City Prosecutor Richards.

The charge was sworn to by B. H. Craig, manager of the Tod Ford ranch, San Fernando, who says W. M. Pettifill, manager of the Chocolate Lake, picked the two oranges from trees on the Ford ranch. According to Mr. Craig, he says Mr. Pettifill struck the fruit hard and immediately ordered the caterer from the grounds.

Mr. Pettifill retaliated later yesterday, swearing to a complaint charging Mr. Craig with disturbing the peace.
